COORDINATOR UPDATE – Raechelle Bowlay

- Collaborative Child Care Study Liaison Team met on February 18, 2020 to finalize the RFA to be released by March 6, 2020. Applications due May 6, 2020.
- This Management Bulletin (MB) is to notify and provide guidance to California Resource and Referral Programs (R&Rs) and Local Planning Councils (LPCs) about updated requirements and instructions during the declared State of Emergency in response to the COVID-19 public health emergency.
- Local Planning Councils; In light of the State of Emergency related to COVID-19, LPCs must:

- Refocus staffing and resources to support the local emergency response led by the R&Rs. LPCs must be an active part of developing these plans and contribute to their implementation.
- Remain open, have phone lines, email accounts, and access to up-to-date information that can be accessed by employees remotely, in order to provide resources and information to families of essential workers, at-risk populations, and providers during the declared State of Emergency related to COVID-19.
- Hold meetings in accordance with the Brown Act, as modified by Executive Order N-25-20, which authorizes local legislative bodies to hold public meetings telephonically, by teleconference, or by other electronic means.
- As a part of the local emergency child care response plan, assess ongoing local child care needs, prioritizing the needs of essential workers and at-risk populations, in partnership with the local R&Rs, local Quality Counts California consortium, local CCL Regional Office, local Alternative Payment contractors, direct contract programs (center-based and family child care home educational networks operated by local education agencies and community-based organizations), child care provider organizations, First 5 county commission, and nonprofit partnerships. If the state identifies statewide solutions for assessing vacancies and matching supply and demand emergency response, partners may be directed to utilize the statewide solution;
- Serve as a resource and support for the planning of local countywide child care services;
- Continue to work collaboratively with the local R&Rs to create a communication and outreach plan in coordination with the CDE contractors (e.g. local Alternative Payment contractors, direct contract programs, such as center-based and family child care home educational networks operated by local education agencies, and community-based organizations), County Welfare Departments, child care provider organizations, CCL Child Care Regional Offices, and other local partners and program. The communication and outreach plan will include information about newly created spaces and relay information to the local R&Rs to ensure the information is shared with families.
- Continue to partner with the local agencies to encourage best practices and provide strategies and resources to the field.
- As applicable, report or provide to county lead to report, newly emerging data about care for Essential Workers to the CDE and the California Department of Social Services (CDSS).
- As possible, deploy staff to support county's overall action to connect Essential Workers to available child care spaces at the direction of the county lead.
- We are the Care; Leadership team met on May 4, 2020 to discuss future efforts. Possible advocacy for State resources that highlight child care as small business and the mixed delivery system.
- Shana Paulson (CAPSLO Child Care Resource Connection) and Council Manager will be on Central Coast Voices to talk about the local child care crisis in the midst of the State of Emergency.
- Provider Appreciation Day is Friday May 8, 2020.
- We have purchased a G Suite under the domain of council@sanluischildcare.org and will work on transitioning all Council archives in accordance with the Brown Act.
- Attachment Included:
 - COVID-19 Emergency Response Plan: San Luis Obispo County LPC
